

The disastrous impact of the drive for profits by the few at the top will be the elimination of news of local import and interest. It will diminish the variety of viewpoints that are needed in a democracy, and create monopolies that will be disseminating uniform, controlled information. I call that brain-washing at best. I insist that you preserve freedom of speech. Thank You.